Dear Legislators:

I am writing in support of AB # 413 which moves the Municipal Paramedic's into the Protective Occupation Participant classification.

As an Constable in Door County I work with the Paramedic's on a day to day basis and see them subjected to many of the same hazards and perils that the county police and fire officers do.

It is apparent that it is an oversight that they are not included in this classification. I sincerely suggest that you correct this oversight at this time.

Sincerely,
