AN ACT to amend 350.1025 of the statutes, relating to: expanding the areas where the intoxicated snowmobiling law applies.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 350.1025 of the statutes is amended to read:

350.1025 Application of intoxicated snowmobiling law. In addition to being applicable upon highways Except as provided in this section, the intoxicated snowmobiling law is applicable upon to all premises held out to the public for use of their snowmobiles property, whether such premises are the property is publicly or privately owned and whether or not a fee is charged for the use thereof of that property. The intoxicated snowmobiling law does not apply to the operation of a snowmobile on private land not designated as a snowmobile trail unless an accident involving personal injury occurs as the result of the operation of a snowmobile and the snowmobile was operated on the private land without the consent of the owner of that land.

SECTION 2. Initial applicability. This act first applies to offenses committed on the effective date of this SECTION, but does not preclude the counting of other offenses as prior offenses for sentencing a person.
