the disclosure of records relating to a child's substitute care parent

AN ACT relating to: the budget.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

CORRECTIONAL SYSTEM
JUVENILE CORRECTIONAL SYSTEM

Under current law, subject to certain exceptions, the department of corrections (DOC), a county department of human services or social services or a licensed child welfare agency (collectively "agency") may not make available for inspection or disclose the contents of any record kept or information received about an individual in the care or legal custody of the agency except by order of the court assigned to exercise jurisdiction under the juvenile justice code (juvenile court). Current law, however, is silent as to the confidentiality of records kept and information received relating to a foster parent, treatment foster parent or family-operated group home parent (substitute care parent). This bill prohibits an agency from making available for inspection or disclosing the contents of any record kept or information received relating to a substitute care parent or a family member of a substitute care parent without first receiving the written permission of the substitute care parent, except by order of the juvenile court. The bill, however, does not apply to the confidential exchange of information between an agency and another social welfare agency. The bill also does not prohibit an agency from disclosing to the juvenile's parent, guardian or legal custodian the name and address of the substitute care parent or from including the location of the juvenile's placement in the juvenile's permanency plan.
