Scott Hubli indicated that I should forward to you possible technical problems in the budget. Here are the 1st. I hope, but doubt, they will be the last. If I'm misunderstanding these, and there is no problem, please have somebody point out the error of my ways.

1. 20.505 (4) (fm) is renumbered to 20.505 (1) (fm). 20.505 (1) (fm), as renumbered, is repealed. There appears to be no delayed date for the repeal. As such both treatments would be effective on the date of publication, and the repeal would be immediate. However, 20.505 (4) (fm) was repealed effective Jan 1, 2000 by 1997 Act 237. From our perspective the original repeal would stand regardless of the renumber. As such, we believe that if the repeal was intended to carry out the original Jan 1 date, the repeal could be vetoed from the budget without effect. Also, whatever is done does not effect what we will print as we are treating everything effective prior to Jan 2, 2000 as being current. Ultimately the provision will be deleted from the next draft base, CD-ROM and internet update.

2. Section 1207 says 49.029 (2) is amended "as affected by this act", but I don't find another treatment in the bill. If there isn't one, there is an incorrect x-ref that we can deal with in a correction bill. If there is another treatment, I need to know where. ccc TAY his right

3. The striking of the semicolon in the Ch. 77 title appears as though it may not be correct.

Subject: budget

The delayed effective date in 9457 (6f) says that the date is either a date published in a notice "or the effective date of this subsection, whichever is later." There is however no delayed date for subsection (6f). It seems, therefore, that the later date will always be the date in the notice, and there really is no possible alternative date. Whether or not a delayed was intended for sub. (6f), there is none and it would be much clearer if the "or on the effective date of this subsection, whichever is later" were removed by veto.

Sections 1849gn and 1849gm are in the wrong order.

Tina and

Peter Grant looked into this and felt there was some danger in changing SEC. #'s now because of the vetoes, and there is no danger/harm in not changing it.
