Budget Amendments 1999- 2000

Statement of Intent

Arts Board. The motion eliminates the state's current "percent-for-art" program requirement that at least two-tenths of one percent of the cost of new state building projects exceeding $250,000 must be used to purchase original works of art for display in or around the project and to pay for the program's administrative costs. Summary

Under the state's current "percent-for-art" program, at least two-tenths of one percent of the cost of new state building projects exceeding $250,000 must be used to purchase original works of art for display in or around the project and to pay for the program's administrative costs.

This motion would eliminate the "percent-for-art" program mandate described above.
