Possible Amendment From SRSC

SRSC #20

RE: Tax Exemption for US Military Personnel

---

This motion is identical to one proposed by Rep. Hudertmark and approved during the Assembly GOP budget caucus.

Currently, payments received as a member of the U.S. Armed Forces are generally taxable. This includes basic pay, special pay, bonuses and other payments.

This amendment creates an individual state income tax exemption for all income received from the federal government by an individual on active duty in the U.S. military whose federal adjusted gross income is equal to or less than 200 percent of the federal poverty line.

According to the LFB, this motion is estimated to cost $5.1 million annually.
