15 food workers', wage or salary and fringe benefits costs per patient day have increased
16 during the period after June 30, 1999, and before July 1, 2000, by a percentage that 17 is at least equal to the percentage of increase obtained under paragraph (bg). The 18 department shall adjust the required percentage increase to account for all of the 19 following:

20 1. Any payment rate increase or decrease applicable to the facility that is in 21 effect beginning July 1, 1999, and is other than the supplement under paragraph (b).

22 2. The fact that the wage supplement percentage increase is based only on 23 wages and salaries, while the cost comparison also includes fringe benefits.

24 3. Any decrease or increase in the facility's expenditures for contracted labor 25 services.

15 “(b) In addition to any facility payment rate increases for state fiscal years
16 1999–2000 and 2000–01, in order to permit a facility, as defined in section 49.45 (6m)
17 (a) 3. of the statutes, to increase, beginning July 1, 1999, wages or salaries and fringe
18 benefits for or increase staff hours of housekeeping and laundry workers, dietitians 19 and food workers, as determined by the department of health and family services, 20 from the appropriations under section 20.435 (4) (b) and (o) of the statutes the 21 department shall, beginning October 1, 1999, supplement facility payment rates
22 under section 49.45 (6m) (av) of the statutes by an amount not to exceed $3,562,300 23 in state fiscal year 1999–2000 and $4,749,800 in state fiscal year 2000–01, or by

1 multiplying the total amount of the wages reported in the 1998 cost reports of 2 facilities by the percentage obtained under paragraph (bg), whichever is less. The 3 department shall calculate each facility's maximum payment per patient day under 4 this paragraph by multiplying by the percentage obtained under paragraph (bg) the 5 amount obtained by dividing the total of the facility's housekeeping and laundry 6 workers', dietitians' and food workers' wages or salaries by the total number of 7 patient days of the facility, as indicated by the facility's 1998 cost reports. Each 8 facility may apply to the department for up to the total maximum amount per patient 9 day calculated for the facility and receive that supplemental amount for each medical 10 assistance day of service provided.

11 (bg) The department of health and family services shall determine what 12 percentage of the total amount of facilities' wages for housekeeping and laundry
13 workers, dietitians and food workers reported in the 1998 cost reports of facilities
14 will, in the best estimation of the department, most nearly equal the specified 15 amounts of moneys under paragraph (b).

16 (bm) In order to ensure that a supplement provided to a facility under 17 paragraph (b) was expended in accordance with the purpose specified in paragraph 18 (b), the department of health and family services shall prepare a supplemental 19 application form for completion by facilities in applying for the supplement, to 20 determine whether the facility's housekeeping and laundry workers', dietitians' and 21 food workers', wage or salary and fringe benefits costs per patient day have increased
22 during the period after June 30, 1999, and before July 1, 2000, by a percentage that 23 is at least equal to the percentage of increase obtained under paragraph (bg). The 24 department shall adjust the required percentage increase to account for all of the 25 following:
