

DRAFTER'S NOTE FROM THE LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE BUREAU

LRBs0021/1dn
RPN:jlg&cmh:jf

March 12, 1999

Do we need a special provision for dogs that are used as security devices — it could be argued that they are always “intended or likely to cause...great bodily harm”, so the injured party could always collect for injuries caused by a dog.

Robert P. Nelson
Senior Legislative Attorney
Phone: (608) 267-7511