Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

Permitting the use of Wisconsin driver's licenses and Wisconsin ID cards issued by DOT as proof of age will not affect the cost of issuing child labor work permits.

The department will be able to modify its child labor regulations to comply with this legislation without incurring any costs that can't be absorbed within the department's budget.

The department will need to communicate to 650 work permit offices throughout the state that offices may now accept Wisconsin driver's licenses and ID cards as proof of age. It is estimated that a one-time cost of $325.00 (650 offices X $.50) would be generated to print and mail the communication to the 650 offices.

No cost to local units of government is anticipated.

Long-Range Fiscal Implications

None.
