Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

This bill prohibits a prisoner in a correctional facility from conducting telephone solicitations unless the prisoner immediately identifies himself or herself and supplies the name and location of his or her correctional facility and the person on whose behalf he or she is conducting the telephone solicitation. Telephone solicitation has the meaning given in s. 134.72 (1)(c), which is a telephone solicitation for the purpose of encouraging a person to purchase property, goods, or services. The bill provides a penalty of $10,000 for each violation.

It is not expected that this bill would have any fiscal impact on state or local government.
