Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

AB 320 changes the number of applicant names that are provided to a sheriff for appointment as a deputy sheriff in those counties with a competitive examination. Instead of providing the names of all persons with the top three scores, this bill would provide the names of all persons who receive a score of at least 70%.

This bill would increase the number of applicants who are considered by counties for appointment to deputy sheriff positions. However, this is not expected to have a fiscal impact on the counties except if a county pays expenses or per diems to those conducting the interviews or other evaluations of the applicants.
