Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate:

This bill expands laws prohibiting the sale or purchase of human organs for use in human organ transplantation to prohibit any sale or purchase of human body parts. The bill defines "human body part", for purposes of this prohibition, to be a cell, tissue, organ or other part of a human being after fertilization (for example, fetal tissue) and excludes from the definition the blood, ova and semen of a human being after 18 years of age and hair. It is estimated that this prohibition will have a zero-dollar net fiscal effect.
