Alberta Darling

Wisconsin State Senator

Senate Bill 30/Assembly Bill 108
Senate Judiciary and Consumer Affairs Committee
May 25, 1999

Chairman George, Committee members; thank you for hearing testimony this morning on Senate Bill 30 and Assembly Bill 108.

These proposals, often referred to as Lizzie's Law, after a little girl in Massachusetts for whom the law was first written, aims at protecting children for further victimization after suffering the tragic loss of one of their parents.

Senate Bill 30/Assembly Bill 108 prohibits the granting of placement and visitation rights to a parent or relative convicted of first-degree or second-degree intentional homicide of a child or juvenile's parent or relative unless the child or juvenile wishes to have such rights. The child must have reaches a sufficient age and maturity to make such a determination.

Several of my constituents have been in this unfortunate situation. Mary & Richard Purucker of Milwaukee, have cared for their three grandchildren since their daughter was murdered in 1993. Their daughter was murdered by the father of her children. He has since been sentenced and servicing 54 years in an Illinois prison.

The Purucker's youngest grandchild, a four year old boy, was hiding behind a Christmas tree and witnessed the murder.

The father of the children had petitioned repeatedly to have visits with the children, as well as telephone conversations. The legal process was very expensive and exhausting on the Puruckers and the children. The children, especially the young boy, have no desire to see their father.

It is time that we close this loophole in the law and protect our children from being re-traumatized. With this proposal, victims and their families will no longer be forced to relive the nightmare that resulted in the loss of the loved one, and a parent.

I am also introducing an amendment to my proposal to ensure that families that have already been ruled against in these matters may petition to revoke visitation privileges.

We can not, by passage of this legislation, bring back the loved ones of the families and the parents of these children, but we can put an end to the pain that they are forced to relive with each visit, telephone call and letter.

I strongly urge you to vote in favor of recommendation of Senate Bill 30 and Assembly Bill 108.

Thank you in advance for your consideration. I'd be happy to answer any questions you might have on this important public safety proposal.

Dear Senator Darling,

I am sorry that we are not able to be with you today as you introduce Lizzie's Law in the Senate. We are very much interested in this law.

We had a daughter murdered by her husband, this murder took place in Illinois on December 14, 1993 and was witnessed by their young son age four at the time. The twin girls who were eight years old were in the house but did not witness the murder. The children have lived with us since that time. We were granted custody of the three children on July 31, 1995.

The father was convicted of first degree murder, sentenced to 54 years and is now serving the time in Joliet, IL.. In March 1996 the father requested through Milwaukee Children's Court that the children be brought down to Joliet twice a month to visit him and have unlimited phone calls with them. He is allowed to write letters. He carried this request for 15 months through 7 Court dates in which we never had a hearing as he always had some excuse for it not to be heard. Finally on May 30, 1997 he withdrew the petition for visitation giving no reason at all.

It is our understanding that he can bring back this petition at any time. The children have never indicated to us that they would like to see him or talk to him on the phone. The youngest child has been in Therapy since the murder. The visits to the Therapist increase every year at Christmas time, about the time of the anniversary of his mother's death.

He has since brought other suits against us in the Illinois Courts. Again, he continues to drag out the proceedings, is allowed to correct errors in filings and simply tries to find ways to continue to harass our family through the legal process.

We feel that Lizzie's Law if it should pass in Wisconsin would help protect us from having to go through the agonizing and expensive Court proceedings. The children wouldn't have to worry that some Court would force them to visit their father.

Sincerely,

Alberta Darling

Dear Ms. Darling,

My name is Joe Pohlhammer, my family and I reside in Raymond, along with my 10 year old nephew who came to live with us after his father killed his mother. I am writing this letter on behalf of the entire Pohlhammer family.

On October 17, 1996, my only sister, Diane Hackl was murdered by her second husband. She left behind 3 children, 2 from her first marriage and 1 from her second. I would very much like to get "Lizzie's Law" passed here in Wisconsin to protect my 10 year old nephew from having contact with the man who killed his mother. His father was convicted of 1st degree intentional homicide in Jefferson County and is presently serving his life sentence in Waupun.

Our lives have been hell since this tragic event. Our time seems to be devoured by constant 'chasing' for court hearings, hours of letter writing, and cheauferring for counseling. The legal expenses are more than we ever imagined possible. 'Lizzie's Law' is our last hope, our 'light at the end of the tunnel,' in hopes that Cody will not be forced to visit his father in prison. It just amazes us how the man who killed this boy's mother, seems to have more legal rights than the victims whose lives he affected. With financial resources almost completely depleted, if 'Lizzie's Law' is not passed, and grandfathered in, we are most likely going to have to give up 'fighting' to protect Cody from seeing his father.

If you know of other families who are going through this same 'nightmare,' and are looking for someone to talk to, please feel free to give them our name and phone number. We would be glad to talk anyone else and be of assistance to them if we can. If you need names to use in your battle to pass this law, feel free to use us. We would very much like to see this law passed. We appreciate your efforts to try to get this law passed, to protect innocent children from having to face the 'monsters' who commit these hainus crimes.

I don't know exactly what is needed to get "Lizzie's Law" passed in Wisconsin, but my family cannot afford the massive attorneys fees to protect my nephew. Any and all help you can give us in getting this law passed would be greatly appreciated.

Thank you in advance for your consideration on this matter.

Sincerely,

Dear Senator George

This letter is written to ask that a bill be passed as soon as possible. This bill states that a child of a person convicted of 1st degree intentional homicide of a spouse cannot force visitation of a minor child. This bill applies to what is happening in my family right now. If my cousin Cody, does not want to visit his father in prison after his father killed his mom, he should not be forced to do so, by law! This is a list of people who agree and feel the same as I do. The purpose of this letter, and many to follow is to put this through the senate as soon as possible. My cousin will be forced to visit his father on september of this year. If at all possible, we would like to prevent that from happening. Thank-you for your time.

Sincerely, Jessica Pothhammer

MEMORANDUM

DATE: 5/24/99
TO: GRG
FROM: DR
RE: Background/Briefing on Selected Items Scheduled for May 25, 1999, Judiciary Committee Hearing

SB 50 -- Seat Belt

Mike Brozek faxed over a list of the witnesses his group intends to call. Most of them will appear as part of various panels. Sen. Risser intends to appear.

AB 45 -- Gun Hotline

Rep. Kelso intends to appear. I expect someone from the Attorney general's office will appear and will urge that the hotline be housed in the handgun hotline rather than the drug tipline. (The handgun hotline is open longer hours and their personnel is more familiar with weaponry that the drug hotline people are.)

SB 30 /AB 108 -- Placement and Visitation for the Murder of a Child's Parent

Sen. Darling intends to appear. (Rep. Montgomery, the Assembly author, may appear.) I expect several family members of deceased parents will want to testify.

I am aware of a couple of proposed amendments:

- Sen. Darling will offer (or at least mention) an amendment that she has worked out with the State Bar Family Law Section. A similar amendment will be offered to the Assembly bill.

(Under the engrossed bill, the court is generally prohibited from granting visitation or placement rights, but may grant these if the child wishes to have visitation or placement rights, is mature enough to make that decision and it would be in the child's best interests. The amendment would allow the court to order visitation or placement rights if it determines by clear and convincing evidence that it would be in the child's best interests. The court would be required to consider the wishes of the child in making that determination.)

- Sen. Clausen will offer (or at least mention) an amendment that would cover those who solicit others to kill a child's parent (commit first-degree homicide).

MEMORANDUM

To: Senate Judiciary and Consumer Affairs Committee
From: Linda Barth, Public Affairs Director
Date: May 25, 1999
Re: Assembly Bill 108 and Senate Bill 30

The State Bar's Family Law Section and Children and the Law Section have suggestions regarding Assembly Bill 108 and Senate Bill 30 which prohibits visitation or placement of a child with a parent who has murdered the other parent.

The members of the Sections see circumstances where it may be possible that limiting contact with the convicted parent would be emotionally harmful to the child. Currently, as the bill is written, the burden is on the child—if the child is mature enough—to seek contact with the convicted parent.

We have been working with the bill authors on language that would provide some judicial discretion in these cases. The amendment requires the parent seeking visitation or placement to prove by clear and convincing evidence that the placement or visitation is in the child's best interest and requires the judge to consider the wishes of the child.

It is our hope that you will support the amendment. Please feel free to call me at 250-6140, if you have any questions.
