2 as the rules of the 1999 senate.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This resolution continues, except for Senate Rule 21m, the rules of the 1997 senate as the rules of the 1999 senate.

Senate Rule 21m prohibits senate campaign committees from soliciting or accepting campaign contributions from lobbyists or from political action committees that are controlled by organizations that employ or retain lobbyists, except during the campaign period. This resolution repeals that rule.
