A district is a local unit of government that is a body corporate and politic and that is separate and distinct from, and independent of, the state and the political subdivisions within its jurisdiction. Under the bill,

~~district's jurisdiction remains fixed even if population or attendance figures subsequently decline below the minimums described. A district does not have jurisdiction over any relocated stadium, whether or not the stadium is approved by the league.~~

~~In connection with football stadium facilities, the powers of a district include the construction, maintenance, management and acquisition of the football stadium and facilities; the issuance of bonds and imposition of a sales tax and a use tax to finance the stadium and facilities; and the authority to enter into partnerships, joint ventures, common ownership or other arrangements with other persons to further the district's purposes. Before the taxes imposed by a district may take effect, however, the district's action must be approved in a referendum. A district may also set standards governing the use of, and the conduct within, the stadium and facilities, and may set and collect fees for the use of the facilities or for the right to purchase admission to events at the stadium. Unless it is not feasible to do so, the bill requires a district to enter into a contract with a professional football team, or a subsidiary or affiliate of the team, that requires the team or its subsidiary or affiliate to acquire and construct football stadium facilities that are part of any facilities that the district leases to the team or its subsidiary, whether or not the football stadium facilities are financed by a district.~~

~~The district is governed by a board that consists of two persons appointed by the governor, two persons appointed by the chief elected official of the most populous city within the district's jurisdiction, two persons appointed by the chief elected official of the county in which the football stadium is located and, if such a situation exists, one person appointed by the chief elected official of each city, village or town (municipality) within the district's jurisdiction, other than the most populous city within the district's jurisdiction, that has a boundary at the time of the district's creation that is contiguous to a boundary of the site of the football stadium.~~
