PG 4. Failing schools report: Require the State Superintendent to annually report to the public, the Legislature and the Governor the schools identified under s. 115.38. Require districts to review and develop a plan to make improvements in the operations of any school within their district that makes the list.

PG 5. Create a Panel to review DPI rules: Create a panel of local educators to review DPI rules (except those related to special education and health and safety issues). The 11-member panel of gubernatorial appointees would consist of two members of the general public (one of which is a parent of a school-aged child), three school board members selected from nominations from WASB, three school district administrators selected from nominations from ~~SAA~~, three teachers selected from nominations of organizations representing teachers. DPI would provide staff support to the panel. Require the panel to submit to DPI, by August 1, 2002, recommendations specifying which DPI administrative rules should be retained. Require DPI to promulgate administrative rules to put into effect the proposed changes by January 1, 2003. Specify that all existing DPI rules, except those related to special education and health and safety issues are repealed as of January 1, 2003 (i.e., replaced by the newly promulgated rules.) The repeal and recreation process should not include rules related to special education and health and safety issues.

PG 6. DPI Reorganization. Direct the State Superintendent to work with the Secretary of the Department of Administration to develop a reorganization plan to enhance DPI's capacity to support school improvement. The plan shall be submitted to the Secretary of the Department of Administration by March 15, 2002. The plan must accomplish the following:

- Reorganize the department's Division of Learning Support: Instructional Services to create a bureau of school improvement. Existing division staff, including subject area educational consultants, student services consultants, and Title I staff in the Division of Learning Support: Equity and Adequacy shall staff multidisciplinary teams of state employees and experienced licensed educators that will provide on-site technical assistance to school districts, in particular to schools that are included on the list of schools in need of improvement under s. 115.38. The experienced educators that will supplement DPI staff on the multidisciplinary teams will be hired as project employees of the department.
- The school improvement teams described above shall review school operations including school organization and management, school climate and culture, curriculum and instruction, parental involvement.
- As part of the reorganization, DPI shall request additional project positions to provide the authority to hire experienced educators to complement DPI staff on the school improvement teams.
- Assure the department has the capacity to assist schools in designing and implementing decentralized school governance systems.
- Administer the Building Based Management Grant Program and the School Leadership Grant Program.

Furthermore, provide $700,000 GPR in FY03 for salary, fringe benefits and supplies and services expenditures associated with employing experienced licensed educators to serve on the school improvement teams described above. Peter,

Draft 1703 creates an 11-member commission to review DPI rules.

Please revise the draft to direct the commission to also submit its report to the Legislature, Governor and the Secretary of the Department of Administration.

In addition, please specify that the commission should identify those rules which are outmoded, inefficient or do not serve to promote improved educational achievement.

1703/2 creates a committee to review DPI rules. The committee's report is submitted by August 1, 2002 to the DPI, the Governor, the Legislature and DOA.

Would it be possible to revise the draft so that DPI is required to submit rule modifications responding to the committee's report. The modifications would have to be submitted to the Legislature by March 1, 2003.

I'll try to reach you on Sunday to see if there are other ways to strengthen the rule review process and report.

Thanks.

- 2           SECTION 9140. Nonstatutory provisions; public instruction.
3           (1) REVIEW OF THE DEPARTMENT'S RULES.

1 (a) There is created a committee for the review of rules promulgated by the
2 department of public instruction. The committee shall consist of the following
3 members appointed by the governor:

4 1. Three school board members selected from names submitted by the 5 Wisconsin Association of School Boards.

6 2. Three school district administrators selected from names submitted by the 7 Wisconsin Association of School District Administrators.

8 3. Three teachers selected from names submitted by organizations
9 representing teachers.

10 4. Two other members, one of whom is the parent of a school-aged child.

11 (b) The department of public instruction shall provide staff for the committee.

12 (c) The committee shall review all of the administrative rules promulgated by 13 the department of public instruction other than rules relating to special education
14 and health and safety issues. The committee shall identify those rules that are 15 outmoded, impede innovation, cause inefficiencies, or fail to promote academic 16 achievement, and those rules that should not apply to school districts that are 17 designated as school districts with expanded flexibility under s. 118.39. By August
18 1, 2002, the committee shall submit to the governor, the department of public
19 instruction, the secretary of administration, and the legislature in the manner
20 provided under section 13.172 (2) of the statutes, a report recommending
21 modifications to the rules. The committee terminates upon submission of its report.

22 (d) The department of public instruction shall review the committee's report.
23 By March 1, 2003, the department shall submit to the legislative counsel staff under 24 section 227.15 (1) of the statutes proposed modifications to the rules based on the 25 committee's recommendations.

PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION

This bill creates an 11-member committee, appointed by the governor, to review and make recommendations for modifying DPI's administrative rules. The committee must identify those rules that are outmoded, impede innovation, cause inefficiencies, or fail to promote academic achievement, and those rules that should not apply to school districts that are granted extended flexibility status. DPI must review the committee's recommendations and propose modifications to its rules based on those recommendations.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
