TANF

Under current law, the governor may enter into a cooperative arrangement with DWD under which DWD transfers federal temporary assistance for needy families block grant moneys to the office of the governor to assist the governor in providing temporary assistance for needy families. Currently, that authority expires on January 6, 2003. This bill eliminates that expiration date.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:
