Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, only residents of the state of Wisconsin are eligible to be notaries public. Generally, a notary public must be at least 18 years of age, have at least an 8th grade education and not have an arrest or conviction record. Currently, a person who is licensed to practice law in this state is entitled to a permanent commission as a notary public. If his or her license to practice law is suspended or revoked, the notary public commission is revoked. Upon reinstatement, he or she is entitled to a permanent commission. A notary public is authorized by law to attest by his or her signature that a written document, such as a deed, was signed and sworn to before that notary public. Currently, the official certificate of an notary public is presumed evidence of the facts stated in the certificate in every court of the state. Notaries public have the power to act throughout the state under current law, and may administer oaths, take depositions and acknowledgements of deeds, demand acceptance of foreign bills of exchange, accept payment of promissory notes and perform other duties as allowed by commercial usage.

This bill expands the persons who may be notaries public to include anyone who resides in the United States. The bill requires a nonresident applicant to file the application in the same manner and subjects the applicant to the same procedures and responsibilities as resident applicants, including the payment of the same
