Subject Penalty for harboring a child runaway

Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

This bill creates a Class C misdemeanor penalty for a person who receives a child runaway into his or her home, if the person should have known that the child was a runaway and the person fails to immediately notify the police or the child welfare agency.

It is impossible to estimate the number of violations that would occur if this bill became law. Additional criminal cases would require additional judge, court reporter, court staff and possibly juror time. These costs are borne both by the county and the state. The exact increase cannot be projected with the data available.

Long-Range Fiscal Implications
