Assumptions Used In Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

This bill seeks to classify certain teachers and librarians as "protective occupation" participants. Employees in the protective classification category have the option of early retirement (age 54 for staff with less than 25 years of service, and age 53 for those with more than 25 years). During FY 01 the fringe benefit rate is 37.76% for non-protective occupations versus 41.56% for protective.

The Department currently has 222 GPR teachers and librarians. The annual payroll for these positions is $9.5 million GPR with fringe benefits of an additional $3.6 million. Classifying these positions as protective occupations will increase fringe benefit costs by an additional $359,400 GPR. These costs are based on wages and fringe benefit rates as of January 2001.

The Department currently has 138.35 PR teachers and librarians. The annual payroll for these positions is $6.2 million PR with fringe benefits of an additional $2.3 million PR. It should be noted that 131.85 of these positions are positions related to juvenile corrections. Since the PR funds utilized to pay for these teachers generally come from counties placing juveniles in juvenile correctional facilities, this change could potentially increase the rate charged to counties. The additional fringe benefits for the 131.85 FTE increases costs by $224,000 PR.

The remaining 6.5 PR positions are related to grant funds in adult corrections. The annual payroll for these positions is $299,300 PR. The increased fringe benefit rates will increase costs $11,400 PR.
