Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Current law prohibits production, possession, and distribution of a photograph, motion picture, videotape, or other visual representation or reproduction that depicts nudity if the person depicted nude did not consent to the representation or reproduction and if the person who makes, possesses, or distributes the representation or reproduction knows or should know that the person depicted nude did not consent to the nude depiction. Current law exempts from criminal liability parents, guardians, and legal custodians who make and possess visual representations or reproductions of their children that show nudity or distribute them for other than commercial purposes.

The Wisconsin supreme court recently found the state statute prohibiting nude representations unconstitutional, because it prohibits all depictions of nudity made without consent, including artistic, political, and newsworthy depictions that are protected by the First Amendment (State v. Stevenson, 236 Wis. 2d 86 (2000)).

This bill narrows the scope of the prohibition against making an original representation that depicts nudity by requiring that, at the time the representation is made, the subject of the depiction be both nude and in a place and circumstance in which he or she can reasonably expect privacy.

ASSEMBLY BILL 145

The bill also applies the prohibition against making a reproduction that depicts nudity only to the act of reproducing an original representation that the reproducer knows or should know was made in violation of the prohibition against making an original representation, although the bill exempts a reproducer from criminal liability if the subject of the representation does consent to the reproduction even if he or she did not consent to the original representation. The bill treats the prohibitions against possessing and distributing representations depicting nudity similarly to the prohibition against making reproductions. The bill prohibits possessing or distributing a representation that is unlawfully made, unless the subject of the representation consents to the possession or distribution even if he or she did not consent to the making of the representation.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:
