

2001 ASSEMBLY BILL 181

March 8, 2001 - Introduced by Representative SCHNEIDER. Referred to Committee on Labor and Workforce Development.

1 AN ACT to amend 111.81 (7) (a), 111.93 (3) and 230.26 (4) of the statutes; relating
2 to: collective bargaining rights for limited term employees under the State
3 Employment Labor Relations Act.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, state agencies are authorized to hire limited term employees in the classified service of the state civil service system. A limited term employee is an individual appointed by a state agency for generally less than 1,044 hours per year. Under current law, however, limited term employees are not covered under the State Employment Labor Relations Act (SELRA), which grants collective bargaining rights to certain state employees on matters relating to wages, hours, and conditions of employment. State employees covered by SELRA include:

1. Any state employee in the classified service, except limited term employees, sessional employees, project employees, supervisors, management employees, individuals who are privy to confidential matters affecting the employer-employee relationship, and employees of the employment relations commission.
2. Program, project, or teaching assistants employed by the University of Wisconsin System, except supervisors, management employees, and individuals who are privy to confidential matters affecting the employer-employee relationship.
3. Assistant district attorneys, except supervisors, management employees, and individuals who are privy to confidential matters affecting the employer-employee relationship.

ASSEMBLY BILL 181

4. Attorneys employed in the office of the state public defender, except supervisors, management employees, and individuals who are privy to confidential matters affecting the employer-employee relationship.

This bill eliminates the prohibition in SELRA that excludes coverage under SELRA for limited term employees.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
