Dear Senator Robson:

On behalf of the Wisconsin Association of Local Health Departments and Boards (WALHDAB) I want to thank you for your leadership on Senate Bill 329 which will have a hearing on Wednesday, January 23 in the Senate Committee on Human Services and Aging. We represent all the local health departments and county Boards of Health in our state. Our organization is supportive of this legislation which will assist local public health departments in delivering specific public health services to the communities they serve. Would you please express our appreciation to the sponsors in both the senate and assembly who have supported this legislation? Thank you.

Our organization hopes to have someone at the hearing that will speak in favor of this bill on our behalf, but that may not be possible because of work commitments. That is why we wanted to express our support with this letter. I will e-mail this letter to all members of the Senate Committee on Human Services and Aging for their information.

Thank you again for all your efforts in bringing this bill to a hearing. Your work with Helen Krause is bearing fruit! We look forward to it becoming law.

Sincerely,
