Dan:

Section 939.74(1), Stats., generally provides that prosecution for a felony must be commenced within 6 years after the commission of the crime.

AB 713, as amended, provides that the following two crimes are taken out of the general statute of limitations and are given special treatment:

1. Prosecution for second-degree intentional homicide may be commenced at any time.

2. Prosecution for second-degree reckless homicide may be commenced within 15 years after commission of the crime.
