Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

The impact on state human resources should be addressed by the Office of State Employment Relations. As far as impact on the Department of Transportation, there should be minimal impact. The change in the veterans preference would allow applicants who have not been considered previously to be considered. The "system" for which OSER is responsible would need to add the names of these individuals to certifications. DOT responsibility would rest with verifying these applicants. However, DOT already verifies other individuals who have veterans preference, so this would be only a small increase in the number of eligible individuals.
