2003 Wisconsin Act 51 prohibits a person who works at a correctional institution (which, means a juvenile detention facility, a juvenile correctional facility, a state prison, a county or municipal jail or house of corrections, a Huber facility, a lockup facility, or a county work camp) from having sexual contact or sexual intercourse with a person who is confined in a correctional institution. Act 51 also prohibits a probation, parole, or extended supervision agent from having sexual contact or sexual intercourse with an individual who is on probation, parole, or extended supervision if either: (1) the agent supervises the individual, either directly or through a subordinate; or (2) the agent has influenced or has attempted to influence another agent's supervision of the individual. A person who violates this prohibition is guilty of a Class C felony.

Effective Date: The effective date of 2003 Wisconsin Act 51 is September 5, 2003.
