Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Current law prohibits a person from intentionally leaving without paying for taxicab service or without paying for beverage, food, lodging, or other service or accommodation that the person obtained at a hotel, motel, campground, boarding or lodging house, or restaurant. If a person is convicted of violating this prohibition and the value of the goods or services was $2,500 or less, he or she is guilty of a misdemeanor and may be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned in the county jail for not more than nine months or both. If the value of the goods or services exceeds $2,500, the person is guilty of a felony and the maximum term of imprisonment (consisting of a term of confinement in state prison and a term of extended supervision) increases to three and one-half years. In addition, current law provides for a special civil action for victims of this crime. Using this special civil action, a victim may recover the value of the service or accommodation involved in the crime, any other property damage resulting from the crime, and limited exemplary damages and attorney fees.

This bill prohibits a person from intentionally leaving without paying for a ticket that he or she obtained at a recreational attraction, which the bill defines as including chair lifts or ski resorts, water parks, theaters, entertainment venues, racetracks, swimming pools, trails, golf courses, carnivals, and amusement parks. If a person is convicted of violating this prohibition, the penalties are the same as the penalties described above. The bill also extends the special civil action that covers crimes for leaving without paying for services or accommodations to cover offenses that involve leaving without paying for a ticket.
