TESTIMONY ON ASSEMBLY BILL 62
DISCLOSURE OF JUVENILE RECORDS BY A JUVENILE COURT OR A MUNICIPAL COURT

SENATE JUDICIARY, CORRECTIONS AND PRIVACY COMMITTEE
STATE REPRESENTATIVE BONNIE LADWIG
AUGUST 26, 2003

Dear Chairman Zien and members of the Senate Judiciary, Corrections and Privacy Committee:

Thank you for holding a hearing on Assembly Bill 62.

This legislative change was brought to my attention from a municipal court judge back in 1998 when I was Chairperson of the Assembly Children and Families Committee. The issue centers on municipal court truancy dispositions and the exchange of information between school districts.

Current law requires a juvenile court clerk to notify a school district if school attendance is a condition of a dispositional order entered by the court. In contrast, if a municipal court judge gives the same dispositional order that information cannot be disclosed to anyone. Because of this discrepancy, the only way a school district can obtain such information from the municipal court is to petition the juvenile court for an order requiring the municipal court to release such information.

It is important for municipal courts to notify schools of truancy dispositional orders and for schools to notify the municipal court if a violation of a truancy disposition has occurred. Since schools have to engage in such a difficult process to obtain municipal court orders, it is hard for truancy dispositions to be enforced to their fullest extent.

Assembly Bill 62 clarifies this inconsistency in current law. It will allow our court system to work even better giving some accountability to truancy dispositional orders.

Current law also requires a juvenile court to open its records of a juvenile for inspection by certain parties under certain conditions for proceedings in that court. In maintaining the goal of municipal court disclosure and sharing of information, AB 62 also requires a municipal court to open its records of a juvenile for inspection by certain parties under certain conditions for proceedings in that court.

I have introduced this legislation the past two sessions and it passed the Assembly unanimously both times. It again passed the Assembly unanimously this session on June 4th. Unfortunately, in the past the legislation always died in the state Senate before receiving final action.

Again thank you for holding this hearing and I would be happy to answer any questions.
