CURRENT LAW

Under current law:

1. No person may display on a motor vehicle a registration plate, insert tag, decal, or other evidence of registration not issued for that motor vehicle. A person who violates this prohibition may be required to forfeit not more than $500. [s. 341.61 (intro.) and (2), Stats.]
2. Subject to one exception, no person may transfer to another person or offer for sale a registration plate issued by the Department of Transportation. A person who violates this prohibition is guilty of a Class H felony (a fine of not more than $10,000 or imprisonment for not more than six years, or both). [s. 341.605, Stats.]

2003 ASSEMBLY BILL 280, AS AMENDED BY THE ASSEMBLY

This bill:

1. Creates a new statutory section setting forth specific prohibitions against displaying a stolen registration plate, insert tag, decal, or other evidence of registration on a motor vehicle or possessing, selling, or offering to sell a stolen registration plate, insert tag, decal, or other evidence of registration. Violators may be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than nine months, or both.

2. Provides that a defendant charged with displaying a stolen registration plate, insert tag, decal, or other evidence of registration or possessing, selling, or offering to sell a stolen registration plate, insert tag, decal, or other evidence of registration may raise the affirmative defense that he or she did not know and could not, by reasonable effort, have known that the item was stolen.
