Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, the Department of Health and Family Services (DHFS) is required to prepare printed informational materials relating to sudden infant death syndrome and to distribute those materials so as to maximize their availability to parents. DHFS is also required to promulgate rules requiring day care center licensees who are licensed to provide care and supervision for children under one year of age and the employees and volunteers of those licensees to receive training in sudden infant death syndrome before the license is issued or the employment or volunteer work commences. The Department of Workforce Development (DWD) is required to promulgate similar rules for day care providers who are certified to receive reimbursement under the Wisconsin Works (W-2) program and for the employees and volunteers of those providers.

SENATE BILL 221*Substitute amendment*

This bill creates similar requirements relating to shaken baby syndrome, which is defined in the bill as a severe form of brain injury that occurs when an infant or young child is shaken forcibly enough to cause the brain to rebound against his or her skull and requirements relating to impacted babies, which is defined as babies that suffer death or great bodily harm as a result of being thrown against a surface, hard or soft. Specifically, the bill requires DHFS to prepare or to contract with a nonprofit organization that is dedicated to the prevention of shaken baby syndrome and impacted babies and the support of families affected by shaken baby syndrome or an impacted baby (nonprofit organization) to prepare printed and audiovisual materials relating to shaken baby syndrome and impacted babies that include: information regarding the identification and prevention of shaken baby syndrome and impacted babies; the grave effects of shaking or throwing an infant or young child; appropriate ways to manage crying, fussing, or other causes that can lead a person to shake or throw an infant or young child; and a discussion of ways to reduce the risks that can lead a person to shake or throw an infant or young child.

The bill requires the parents of a newborn infant to be provided with a copy of those written materials and to be requested to view a presentation of those audiovisual materials as follows:

1. In the case of an infant born at or on route to a hospital or maternity home, by the attending physician, attending nurse-midwife, or a trained, designated staff member of the hospital or maternity home before the infant is discharged from the hospital or maternity home.
2. In the case of an infant born elsewhere than at or on route to a hospital or maternity home, by the attending physician, attending nurse-midwife, or a trained, designated birth attendant within seven days after the birth of the infant.

The bill also requires the person who provides those written materials to provide those parents with a form that includes all of the following:

1. A statement that the parent has been advised as to the grave effects of shaking or throwing on an infant or young child and of appropriate ways to manage crying, fussing, or other causes that can lead a person to shake or throw an infant or young child.
2. A telephone number that the parent may call to obtain assistance on how to care for an infant or young child.
3. A statement that the parent will share that information with all persons who provide care for the infant.

In addition, the bill requires that training relating to shaken baby syndrome and impacted babies be provided: for children under ^{five} five years of age

1. Before an individual may obtain a license to operate a day care center, or enter into a contract with a school board to provide a day care program, by DHFS or a nonprofit organization contracted by DHFS to provide that training.
2. Before an individual may be certified as a day care provider under the W-2 program, by a county department of human services or social services (county department) or a nonprofit organization contracted by that county department to provide the training.

3. Before an employee or volunteer of a day care center, of a day care provider, or of a day care program may provide care and supervision for children by DHFS, the certifying county department, or a nonprofit organization contracted by DHFS or county department to provide that training.

The training must be provided by no later than the continuation date of the license or the renewal date of the certification or contract, whichever is applicable, or by two years after the effective date of the bill, whichever is sooner, for an individual who on the day before the initial applicability date of the bill: 1) already holds or has applied for a license to operate a day care center; 2) is already certified as a day care provider or has applied for that certification; 3) is already providing a day care program under a contract with a school board; or 4) is already an employee or volunteer of such a licensee, provider, or program.

and for the of grades 10 to 12

In addition, the bill requires each school board to provide or contract with a nonprofit organization to provide instruction relating to shaken baby syndrome and impacted babies for pupils in grade 1 and one of grades 5 to 8. The bill permits the person providing the instruction to provide to each pupil receiving the instruction a copy of the written materials prepared by DHFS or the nonprofit organization, a presentation of the audiovisual materials prepared by DHFS or the nonprofit organization, and an oral explanation of those written and audiovisual materials.

Moreover, the bill requires a county department or an Indian tribe that is providing home visitation services under DHFS's Child Abuse and Neglect Prevention Program or that is a provider of prenatal, postpartum, and young child care coordination services in Milwaukee County under the Medical Assistance program to provide to a recipient of those services, without cost, a copy of the written materials relating to shaken baby syndrome and impacted babies prepared by DHFS or the nonprofit organization and an oral explanation of those materials.

Finally, the bill requires DHFS to identify all infants and young children who have shaken baby syndrome or who are impacted babies and all infants and young children who have died as a result of being shaken or thrown by using the statewide automated child welfare information system (commonly referred to as "WISACWIS") and child fatality information compiled by the Department of Justice. For each infant or young child so identified, DHFS must document the age, sex, and other characteristics of the child that are relevant to the prevention of shaken baby syndrome and impacted babies and, if known, the age, sex, employment status, and residence of the person who shook or threw the infant or young child, the relationship of that person to the child, and any other characteristics of that person that are relevant to the prevention of shaken baby syndrome and impacted babies.

SENATE SUBSTITUTE AMENDMENT , TO 2005 SENATE BILL 221

Regen

1 AN ACT to amend 48.67, 49.155 (1d) (a) and 49.45 (44) (intro.); and to create
2 20.435 (3) (e), 46.515 (4) (b) 3., 121.02 (1) (L) 6. and 253.15 of the statutes;
3 relating to: the provision of information regarding shaken baby syndrome and
4 impacted babies to the parents of newborn infants, training regarding shaken
5 baby syndrome and impacted babies for day care providers, and instruction
6 regarding shaken baby syndrome and impacted babies for middle school and 7 high school pupils; and granting rule-making authority.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, the Department of Health and Family Services (DHFS) is required to prepare printed informational materials relating to sudden infant death syndrome and to distribute those materials so as to maximize their availability to parents. DHFS is also required to promulgate rules requiring day care center licensees who are licensed to provide care and supervision for children under one year of age and the employees and volunteers of those licensees to receive training in sudden infant death syndrome before the license is issued or the employment or volunteer work commences. The Department of Workforce Development (DWD) is required to promulgate similar rules for day care providers who are certified to receive reimbursement under the Wisconsin Works (W-2) program and for the employees and volunteers of those providers.

This substitute amendment creates similar requirements relating to shaken baby syndrome, which is defined in the substitute amendment as a severe form of brain injury that occurs when an infant or young child is shaken forcibly enough to cause the brain to rebound against his or her skull and requirements relating to impacted babies, which is defined as babies that suffer death or great bodily harm as a result of being thrown against a surface, hard or soft. Specifically, the substitute amendment requires DHFS to prepare or to contract with a nonprofit organization that is dedicated to the prevention of shaken baby syndrome and impacted babies and the support of families affected by shaken baby syndrome or an impacted baby (nonprofit organization) to prepare printed and audiovisual materials relating to shaken baby syndrome and impacted babies that include: information regarding the identification and prevention of shaken baby syndrome and impacted babies; the grave effects of shaking or throwing an infant or young child; appropriate ways to manage crying, fussing, or other causes that can lead a person to shake or throw an infant or young child; and a discussion of ways to reduce the risks that can lead a person to shake or throw an infant or young child.

The substitute amendment requires the parents of a newborn infant to be provided with a copy of those written materials and to be requested to view a presentation of those audiovisual materials as follows:

1. In the case of an infant born at or on route to a hospital or maternity home, by the attending physician, attending nurse-midwife, or a trained, designated staff member of the hospital or maternity home before the infant is discharged from the hospital or maternity home.

2. In the case of an infant born elsewhere than at or on route to a hospital or maternity home, by the attending physician, attending nurse-midwife, or a trained, designated birth attendant within seven days after the birth of the infant.

The substitute amendment also requires the person who provides those written materials to provide those parents with a form that includes all of the following:

1. A statement that the parent has been advised as to the grave effects of shaking or throwing on an infant or young child and of appropriate ways to manage crying, fussing, or other causes that can lead a person to shake or throw an infant or young child.

2. A telephone number that the parent may call to obtain assistance on how to care for an infant or young child.

3. A statement that the parent will share that information with all persons who provide care for the infant.

In addition, the substitute amendment requires that training relating to shaken baby syndrome and impacted babies be provided:

1. Before an individual may obtain a license to operate a day care center for children under five years of age or enter into a contract with a school board to provide a day care program for children under five years of age, by DHFS or a nonprofit organization contracted by DHFS to provide that training.

2. Before an individual may be certified as a day care provider for children under five years of age under the W-2 program, by a county department of human services or social services (county department) or a nonprofit organization contracted by that county department to provide the training.

3. Before an employee or volunteer of a day care center, of a day care provider, or of a day care program may provide care and supervision for children under five years of age, by DHFS, the certifying county department, or a nonprofit organization contracted by DHFS or county department to provide that training.

The training must be provided by no later than the continuation date of the license or the renewal date of the certification or contract, whichever is applicable, or by two years after the effective date of the substitute amendment, whichever is sooner, for an individual who on the day before the initial applicability date of the substitute amendment: 1) already holds or has applied for a license to operate a day care center; 2) is already certified as a day care provider or has applied for that certification; 3) is already providing a day care program under a contract with a school board; or 4) is already an employee or volunteer of such a licensee, provider, or program.

In addition, the substitute amendment requires each school board to provide or contract with a nonprofit organization to provide instruction relating to shaken baby syndrome and impacted babies for pupils in and one of grades 5 to 8 and in one of grades 10 to 12. The substitute amendment permits the person providing the instruction to provide to each pupil receiving the instruction a copy of the written materials prepared by DHFS or the nonprofit organization, a presentation of the audiovisual materials prepared by DHFS or the nonprofit organization, and an oral explanation of those written and audiovisual materials.

Moreover, the substitute amendment requires a county department or an Indian tribe that is providing home visitation services under DHFS's Child Abuse and Neglect Prevention Program or that is a provider of prenatal, postpartum, and young child care coordination services in Milwaukee County under the Medical Assistance program to provide to a recipient of those services, without cost, a copy of the written materials relating to shaken baby syndrome and impacted babies prepared by DHFS or the nonprofit organization and an oral explanation of those materials.

Finally, the substitute amendment requires DHFS to identify all infants and young children who have shaken baby syndrome or who are impacted babies and all infants and young children who have died as a result of being shaken or thrown by using the statewide automated child welfare information system (commonly referred to as "WISACWIS") and child fatality information compiled by the Department of Justice. For each infant or young child so identified, DHFS must document the age, sex, and other characteristics of the child that are relevant to the prevention of shaken baby syndrome and impacted babies and, if known, the age, sex, employment status, and residence of the person who shook or threw the infant or young child, the relationship of that person to the child, and any other characteristics of that person that are relevant to the prevention of shaken baby syndrome and impacted babies.
