Description Creating an individual income tax checkoff for prostate cancer research, creating the Prostate Cancer Research Board, creating the prostate cancer research program, and making appropriations

Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

This bill creates an income tax check-off for designations to fund prostate cancer research. The total amount of designations less the cost of administering the check-off must be used to provide grants to conduct prostate cancer research projects. The bill creates a prostate cancer research board within the Department of Health and Family Services that would award the grants.

According to the Department of Revenue data from tax year 2004 returns, about 27,000 tax filers contributed a total of $331,000 in donations to the breast cancer research program; donations to the breast cancer research program are collected in the same way as the proposed check-off for donations for prostate cancer research would be administered. Assuming similar participation in the proposed check-off, 27,000 filers would donate a total of $331,000 to fund prostate cancer research grants.
