Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

This bill would change the name of the Public Service Commission to Utility Service Commission. To implement the change there would be one-time costs to the Commission to change stationary, envelopes, bank lockboxes and PO boxes, as well as, logo and word changes to the PSC Web site. Another cost would be to change the language in PSC rules. Presumably, these types of changes would be done as new rules, or rule re-writes are proposed. Overall the cost to implement an agency name change would be one-time in nature and absorbed within the existing budget of the Commission.

Long-Range Fiscal Implications
