Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

Among numerous changes to the unemployment insurance program, this bill contains a change in a current misdemeanor charge for making false statements to the Department of Workforce Development. If a person knowingly makes or attempts to make a false statement or representation to the department in connection with certain investigations, that person may now be subject to a Class A misdemeanor, a higher class of misdemeanor than currently applies.

This bill is unlikely to have any impact on the number of cases brought before the circuit courts and is therefore unlikely to have any fiscal impact on the court system.
