Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

Under current Department of Workforce Development (DWD) and Department of Health and Family Services (DHFS) administrative rule, a child may not be left unattended in a vehicle used to transport children to and from a daycare center licensed by DHFS, a daycare provider certified by DWD, or a daycare program established or contracted by a school board.

This bill would make it a crime to leave a child in a vehicle unattended under any of the previous circumstances. A person who violates this prohibition may be subjected to sanctions and penalties under s.48.715, fined up to $1,000, or imprisoned up to 1 year. If a child's death results, the person may be fined up to $25,000, imprisoned up to ten years, or both.

This bill will not have a fiscal effect on the Department of Health and Family Services or county departments of human or social services.
