Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

The current statutes provide criminal penalties for sexual intercourse or contact with a person who is under the influence of an intoxicant. This bill amends the definition of intoxicant so that it includes an alcohol beverage, without regard for whether it is combined with a controlled substance, a controlled substance analog or another drug. A person charged with a crime under the present statute would also be charged with a crime under the amended language. Prosecutorial workload would essentially be the same.
