Description Transferring the functions of the office of retirement research director to the Legislative Council Staff and eliminating the Retirement Research Committee

Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

This bill would repeal the statutory authorization for the Office of Retirement Research Director and transfer the functions of that office to the Legislative Council staff.

The current appropriation for the Office of Retirement Research Director under s.20.765, Stats, which is $59,700 for each year of the biennium, would be repealed.

Under the bill the functions of the Office of Retirement Research Director staff would be assumed by the Legislative Council Staff with no increase in appropriations or authorized positions.

Long-Range Fiscal Implications
