

WISCONSIN LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL ACT MEMO

2005 Wisconsin Act 412
[2005 Senate Bill 626]

Driving While Suspended or Revoked

2005 Wisconsin Act 412 provides that a person who knowingly operates a motor vehicle without a valid license or with an operator's license that has been revoked, suspended, or cancelled, will be penalized in the following ways:

1. A person causing damage to the property of another will be required to forfeit $1,000.
2. A person causing injury to another person will be required to forfeit $5,000.
3. A person causing great bodily harm or death to another person will be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

Effective Date: The Act takes effect on June 3, 2006, and first applies to violations that occur on June 3, 2006.

Prepared by: Ronald Sklansky, Senior Staff Attorney

May 25, 2006

RS:rv

This memo provides a brief description of the Act. For more detailed information, consult the text of the law and related legislative documents at the Legislature's Web site at: <http://www.legis.state.wi.us/>.