Sen. Dave Zien
Chair, Senate Committee on Judiciary, Corrections and Privacy

Dear Senator Zien:

Senate Bill 287 was sent to your committee in August of 2005 and I would respectfully ask that you allow a public hearing on this bill. This bill is bipartisan, having been introduced by both Sen. Alan Lasee and myself among others. The bill allows a person who has been injured as the result of sexual contact by a member of the clergy at any time in the past to bring an action for damages resulting from that contact within one year after the effective date of this bill. You may recall that last session SB 207 extending the statute of limitation for such actions passed both houses and was signed into law.

The current bill is intended to provide a window for victims to bring an action if they were not able to do under previous law.

A copy of this bill is attached.

If you could find a way to see that this bill is given consideration, it would be very much appreciated.

Sincerely,

Tim Carpenter
