2007 BILL

Regen

1 AN ACT to create 100.55 of the statutes; relating to: contracts for commercial
2 mobile telephone service.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill regulates monthly service contracts for mobile telephone service, commonly known as cellular telephone service. The bill defines a monthly service contract as a contract that entitles a person, for a monthly fee, to a limited amount of access to mobile telephone service. Under the bill, a service provider may not enter into a monthly service contract if the contract provides that the access time that has accrued to the customer expires before approximately one year after the month in which the access time accrued, or the expiration of the contract, whichever is sooner.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

3 SECTION 1. 100.55 of the statutes is created to read:

4 100.55 Contracts for mobile telephone service. (1) In this section:

5 (a) "Access time" means a period of time in which a person is entitled to use
6 commercial mobile service provided by a mobile telephone service provider.

7 (b) "Commercial mobile service" has the meaning given in 47 USC 332 (d).
