

State of Wisconsin

2007 Senate Joint Resolution 33

ENROLLED JOINT RESOLUTION

Relating to: honoring the University of Wisconsin–Madison men’s track and field team.

Whereas, the University of Wisconsin–Madison men’s track and field team won the 2007 National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Indoor Championship on March 10, 2007, in Fayetteville, Arkansas; and

Whereas, the Badgers scored 40 points to win its first NCAA title in track and field and the first ever national championship in track and field for a Big Ten Conference school; and

Whereas, the U.S. Track and Field and Cross Country Coaches Association named Head Coach Ed Nuttycombe the Division I Indoor Men’s Coach of the Year after he led the Badgers to the national title and their seventh–consecutive Big Ten championship; and

Whereas, senior Chris Solinsky from Stevens Point, Wisconsin, who scored 18 of the Badgers’ 40 points, broke the school record in the 3,000 meter event and was later named the Division I Men’s Track Athlete of the Year by the U.S. Track and Field and Cross Country Coaches Association; and

Whereas, senior Joe Detmer, Lodi, Wisconsin native, broke his own record for total points in the heptathlon and a world record in the 1,000 meter event; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the senate, the assembly concurring, That the members of the Wisconsin legislature honor the University of Wisconsin–Madison men’s track and field team, Head Coach Ed Nuttycombe, assistant coaches, athletic department staff, and the student–athletes for a record–breaking season and a well–deserved national championship.
