Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

Under current law, the Department of Revenue is required to certify to certain state agencies whether an applicant for a license is liable for delinquent Wisconsin taxes. This bill adds a license under sec. 103.34(3) (c) to the list of licenses issued by the Department of Workforce Development. Section 103.34 is created by this bill for the regulation of traveling sales crews.

Fiscal effect

The provision of the bill that denies a certificate of registration to a business that owes delinquent taxes to Wisconsin may encourage the business to pay the delinquent taxes in order to obtain the certificate of registration. However, it is not known if or how much delinquent tax is owed to Wisconsin by these businesses. Any increase in revenue is expected to be minimal.
