2009 BILL

1 AN ACT to create 66.0145 of the statutes; relating to: requiring governmental
2 bodies of certain political subdivisions to post meeting notices and minutes on 3 their Web sites. ✓

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Currently, under the open meetings law, with certain exceptions, meetings of state and local governmental bodies must be preceded by public notice, must be held in places that are reasonably accessible to the public, and must be open to the public at all times, although such meetings may convene in closed session for the purpose of considering certain matters specified by law.

A public notice of a meeting of a governmental body must contain the time, date, place, and subject matter of the meeting and must be given at least 24 hours before the start of the meeting, although shorter notice, but never less than two hours, may be given under limited circumstances. The notice must be given to news media that have filed a request to receive such a notice and the notice must appear in the governmental body's official newspaper or, if none exists, in a news medium likely to give notice in the area.

Under this bill, a governmental body of a city, village, town, or county (political subdivision) that has a Web site is required to post a public notice of a meeting that is subject to the open meetings law on that political subdivision's Web site and also must post any minutes of the meeting that relate to business conducted during an open session of the meeting. Current law defines "governmental body" to include any
