Subject: Staskunas redraft request LRB-2912/3

Hi Cathlene.

Rep. Staskunas would like to make a couple changes to LRB-2912/3.

First, he would like to include §941.20 (endangering safety by use of a dangerous weapon) in the list of violent misdemeanors found in section 39 of the bill. So, page 13, line 23, after "940.44," insert "941.20,".

Second, we want to exempt hunting from the prohibition on possessing a handgun while under the age of 21. Looking at page 17, lines 15 through 17, I am confused by the language about barrels 12 inches in length or longer. I cannot find anything in the current statutes or administrative code that mentions handguns with barrels that are 12 inches in length or longer. Since it appears that under current law, hunters can hunt with handguns regardless of barrel-length, we would like to simplify the language on page 17, lines 15-17 to something like:

(d) 1. Subsection (2) (a) does not apply to a person under 21 years of age who possesses or goes armed with a handgun for the purposes of hunting and who is in compliance with ss. 29.304 and 29.563.

Thanks again and as always for your hard work,

Tom Kelly

BILL

1 transfers of firearms, records from sales of firearms, possession of firearms by
 2 persons convicted of violent offenses that are not felonies, possession of
 3 handguns by or transfers of handguns to persons under the age of 21, and 4 providing penalties.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Current law provides that various conditions, including a background check of a prospective purchaser, must be met before a federally licensed firearms dealer may transfer a handgun after a sale. This bill prohibits the sale or transfer of any firearm unless one of the following applies: the sale or transfer is by a federally licensed firearms dealer; the sale or transfer is to or through a firearms dealer; the sale or transfer is one for which the waiting period for the purchase of a handgun under current law does not apply; the transfer is by gift, bequest, or inheritance to a family member; or the transfer is intended to be temporary and the purpose of the transfer is not prohibited. In addition, this bill requires that, before any firearm that is not a handgun is transferred, the person receiving the firearm must provide identification and complete a notification form listing his or her name, date of birth, gender, and race, and the firearms dealer must convey the information on the form to the Department of Justice.

Current law prohibits a person from possessing a firearm if he or she has been convicted of a felony. This bill prohibits a person from possessing a firearm also if he or she has been convicted of a "violent nonfelony offense" unless five years have passed since the conviction. A violent nonfelony offense includes misdemeanor battery, misdemeanor harassment, and exposing genitals to a child; violations of a domestic abuse, child abuse, or harassment temporary restraining order or injunction; and misdemeanors for which the maximum term of imprisonment has been increased for use of a dangerous weapon when committing the misdemeanor.

Current law prohibits a person who is under the age of 18 from possessing a dangerous weapon, including a firearm, an electric weapon, and metallic knuckles. This bill prohibits, with exceptions for supervised target practice, law enforcement, or military service, a person who is under the age of 21 from possessing a handgun and a person from transferring a handgun to a person who is under the age of 21.

Because this bill creates a new crime or revises a penalty for an existing crime, the Joint Review Committee on Criminal Penalties may be requested to prepare a report concerning the proposed penalty and the costs or savings that are likely to result if the bill is enacted.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Current law provides that various conditions, including a background check of a prospective purchaser, must be met before a federally licensed firearms dealer may transfer a handgun after a sale. This bill prohibits the sale or transfer of any firearm unless one of the following applies: the sale or transfer is by a federally licensed firearms dealer; the sale or transfer is to or through a firearms dealer; the sale or transfer is one for which the waiting period for the purchase of a handgun under current law does not apply; the transfer is by gift, bequest, or inheritance to a family member; or the transfer is intended to be temporary and the purpose of the transfer is not prohibited. In addition, this bill requires that, before any firearm that is not a handgun is transferred, the person receiving the firearm must provide identification and complete a notification form listing his or her name, date of birth, gender, and race, and the firearms dealer must convey the information on the form to the Department of Justice.

Current law prohibits a person from possessing a firearm if he or she has been convicted of a felony. This bill prohibits a person from possessing a firearm also if he or she has been convicted of a "violent nonfelony offense" unless five years have passed since the conviction. A violent nonfelony offense includes misdemeanor battery, misdemeanor harassment, misdemeanor endangering safety by use of a dangerous weapon, and exposing genitals to a child; violations of a domestic abuse, child abuse, or harassment temporary restraining order or injunction; and misdemeanors for which the maximum term of imprisonment has been increased for use of a dangerous weapon when committing the misdemeanor.

Current law prohibits a person who is under the age of 18 from possessing a dangerous weapon, including a firearm, an electric weapon, and metallic knuckles. This bill prohibits, with exceptions for supervised target practice, law enforcement, or military service, a person who is under the age of 21 from possessing a handgun and a person from transferring a handgun to a person who is under the age of 21.

Because this bill creates a new crime or revises a penalty for an existing crime, the Joint Review Committee on Criminal Penalties may be requested to prepare a report concerning the proposed penalty and the costs or savings that are likely to result if the bill is enacted.
