PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION

Under current law, the members of the school boards of consolidating school districts serve as a joint interim school board of the new school district until the election of members to the school board of the new school district. This bill clarifies that a member of the school board of one of the consolidating school districts who has been newly elected to the school board of the new school district to continue to serve on the school board of the consolidating school district after the election of the new school district board members and until the effective date of the consolidation.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

2 SECTION 1. 117.22 (1) (d) of the statutes is created to read:

3 117.22 (1) (d) A person elected under sub. (2) to the school board of a
4 consolidated school district created by an order of school district reorganization

1 issued under s. 117.08 or 117.09, who also served as a member of the joint interim
2 school board by virtue of his or her membership on the school board of one of the
3 consolidating school districts, may continue to serve as a member of the school board
4 of that consolidating school district until the effective date of the consolidation, as
5 specified in the order of school district reorganization, provided he or she is otherwise
6 qualified to serve on the school board of that consolidating school district.

7 SECTION 9339. Initial applicability; Public Instruction.

8 (1) CONCURRENT MEMBERSHIP ON THE SCHOOL BOARDS OF A CONSOLIDATING AND A
9 CONSOLIDATED SCHOOL DISTRICT. The treatment of section 117.22 (1) (d) of the statutes
10 first applies to a person elected to the school board of a consolidated school district
11 on the effective date of this subsection.
