Sara:

Please note that s. 70.99✓ contains no provision that would prohibit counties from collaborating on property tax assessments. In fact, s. 70.99 (10p)✓ addresses that issue, at least indirectly: "In counties that enter into a compact for a county assessor system, the board of review shall consist of 2 members appointed by each county with one additional member appointed by the county having the greater full value."✓

Instead of having DOR✓ try to "jump start" the provisions of s. 70.99✓, you may want DOR✓ to study the feasibility and efficiency of implementing county assessment systems.✓

Hi Joe – Can we restate line 4 as follows: "...of the statutes, the department of revenue shall collaborate with counties on the creation of county-based property assessment systems."

Thanks for your note – we'll leave 70.99 as is and just use the nonstat language.
