2009 Assembly Joint Resolution 105

ENROLLED JOINT RESOLUTION

Relating to: the life and military service of U.S. Army Staff Sergeant Amy S. Krueger.

Whereas, Amy S. Krueger, born August 7, 1980, daughter of Jerilyn Krueger and David Diem, died on November 5, 2009, of injuries sustained during the terrorist attack at Fort Hood military post in Texas while preparing to deploy to Afghanistan; and

Whereas, Amy graduated from Kiel High School in Kiel, Wisconsin, in 1998, after which she pursued further schooling at the University of Wisconsin; and

Whereas, Amy enlisted in the United States Army after the events of September 11, 2001, completed her basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri, and was then stationed in San Antonio, Texas, where Amy was trained as a mental health specialist; and

Whereas, in 2003, Amy was deployed to Bagram Air Field in Afghanistan in support of Operation Enduring Freedom, and returned to the United States the summer of 2003; and

Whereas, upon her return home, Amy completed her Associate Degree in Arts and Science at the University of Wisconsin–Sheboygan, and also graduated from the Emergency Medical Technicians Program and the Certified Nursing Assistant Program at Lakeshore Technical College in 2008; and

Whereas, while pursuing her bachelor's degree at the University of Wisconsin–Whitewater in 2008, Amy volunteered for service in Afghanistan and trained for deployment at Fort Hunter Liggett in California and in Topeka, Kansas, and then traveled on an overnight bus ride to Fort Hood, Texas, arriving on November 4, 2009; and

Whereas, Amy “Kruegs” Krueger was a member of St. Peter’s United Church of Christ in Kiel, Wisconsin, and enjoyed spending time with her family and friends, shooting pool, playing sheepshead, and being involved in softball and volleyball teams; and

Whereas, Amy felt a deep affection for her country and the ideals it holds dear, and she served the United States and its citizens with determination and respect, and was a profound example of duty, selflessness, and honor; and

Whereas, Amy will be sorely missed by all of those who knew her and by those whose lives she impacted; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the assembly, the senate concurring, That the legislature of the state of Wisconsin commemorates the remarkable life of Staff Sergeant Amy S. Krueger and extends its deepest sympathies to her family, friends, and colleagues; and, be it further
