Fiscal Estimate Narratives

UWS 2/9/2009

LRB Number 09-0943/1	Introduction Number SB-018	Estimate Type Original
Description Fee remissions for certain University of Wisconsin System and technical college students.

Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

Current law requires the Board of Regents of the UW System to grant full remission of fees to resident undergraduate students or children of parents that are killed in the line of duty or die as a result of a qualifying disability when the student was under the age of 21 or before the student was born. This bill increases the age of eligibility from under 21 to under 30. It also provides that the remission remains in effect for 128 credits or eight semesters, whichever period is longer. Currently, the remission remains in effect until completion of a sufficient number of credits for a bachelor's degree, but for no more than five consecutive years.

The University of WI System cannot estimate additional costs which will be incurred as a result of this bill, however, these additional costs should be minimal.

Long-Range Fiscal Implications

As the cost of tuition increases, the cost of this legislation on the UW-System will also increase.
