Description Fees from retired law enforcement officers seeking to carry concealed weapons and making an appropriation

Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

2009 Senate Bill 376 creates an appropriation account under Chapter 20 titled "Certification cards for carrying concealed weapons." The appropriation is for the deposit of any payments that the Department of Justice receives from retired DOJ or federal law enforcement officers to verify eligibility, and to issue certification cards, to carry a concealed weapon under provisions proposed in 2009 Senate Bill 377. Any fees DOJ charges to applicants would reimburse the agency for costs associated with administering the qualification standards of SB 377. The creation of the appropriation is void unless SB 377 is enacted.
