Subject: Reappointment to the Snowmobile Recreation Council (Senate Hearing on 10-15-09)

Good afternoon Senator Holperin,

Just a short note to express my desire to stay on the Wisconsin Snowmobile Recreation Council. I have learned that my reappointment hearing will occur on Thursday, October 15, 2009, at 10:00AM when your Committee on Transportation, Tourism, Forestry, and Natural Resources will convene, with four other items on the agenda also.

I have been on the SRC since 1997, for four complete terms, and this will be my fifth, and I would like it known that I do wish to stay on this council, and that I am actually quite deeply involved at the present time with work on the council as we address trail safety. Specifically we are moving forward with a legislation initiative (presently at the LRB stage according to my information) to address intoxicated operation of persons operating snowmobiles on trails and waterways open to the public. I have chaired the Law Enforcement Committee within the SRC since first being appointed to the council, and we have been addressing this issue, and now have something that we are hoping to move forward with legislation to make our trails and waterways safer.

Thank you for taking time to view this.
