Subject: RE: AB 110 Amendments

Sorry, I've got a couple more:

1-Institute the income limits used under the current Milwaukee and Racine programs and ban the ability to charge tuition on top of the voucher payment

2-Require any special ed voucher schools to take the WKCE and/or its successor

The bill requires the private school to comply with 42 USC 2000d, which reads as follows:

No person in the United States shall, on the ground of race, color, or national origin, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance

But that doesn't cover disability, so I'll add a sentence prohibiting them from rejecting a pupil on the basis of his or her disability.

Sorry, I missed that one. Is there any way for them to accept/reject students based upon their disability if they have open seats? If that's possible, we would like an amendment to safeguard against it.

Regarding the new one, I'm not sure what language in the MPCP you want to copy. I thought you meant that the private school had to accept pupils on a random basis, but that's already in the sub; see p. 4, lines 7 to 10.

First question: only if you have a special needs, yes, and effective immediately with the bill

Second question: not really. We want it to have the full weight of statute like it does with a public school and to also force them to revisit the assessment with the resident district

Got one more for you as well: can we create a blind system for accepting students (similar to the MPCP when it had a cap). I know they had an exemption for students they could not educate, but given the nature of this program, I think we can look past that.
